

Certificates of Appreciation for 2004

The following people and organizations have played a significant part in preserving National Historic Landmarks since the last Landmark update:

1. Mr. Ben Adams, County Administrator, St. Johns County, for acquisition of land at Fort Mose, Florida
2. The Trust for Public Land for acquisition of land to protect Fort Mose, Florida
3. Mr. Jim Woodrick Mississippi Department of Archives and History for the production of the Port Gibson, Mississippi, National Historic Landmark Nomination
4. The Federal Highway Administration, Georgia Division, for the production of an archeological and historical study of New Echota, Georgia
5. The Georgia Department of Transportation, Office of Environment/Location, for the production of an archeological and historical study of New Echota, Georgia
6. New South Associates for the production of a historical study of New Echota, Georgia
7. Southern Research, Historic Preservation Consultants, Incorporated, for the production of an historic archeological study of New Echota, Georgia
8. The Friends of Gaineswood, for their support of the restoration of Gaineswood, Alabama
9. The Trust for Public Land for conveying part of the Moccasin Bend Archeological District, Tennessee, to the National Park Service
10. The Florida Department of Historic Resources for the restoration of the Mountain Lake Sanctuary and Singing Tower (Bok Tower Gardens), Florida
11. The Florida Department of Transportation for the preservation of the Ybor City Historic District, Florida
12. The City of Tampa for the preservation of the Ybor City Historic District, Florida
13. The Federal Highway Administration for the preservation of the Ybor City Historic District, Florida
14. The Barrio Latino Commission for the preservation of the Ybor City Historic District, Florida
15. Preservation Resources, Inc., for the preservation of the Ybor City Historic District, Florida
16. PBS&J for the preservation of the Ybor City Historic District, Florida
17. Kathryn Ortega of Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Quade, and Douglas, Inc. for the preservation of the Ybor City Historic District, Florida

18. The Coastal Heritage Society, for the acquisition of the Central of Georgia Railroad Shops and Terminals, Georgia
19. The Savannah City Council, for the acquisition of the Central of Georgia Railroad Shops and Terminals, Georgia
20. Floyd Adams, Jr., Mayor of Savannah, for acquisition of the Central of Georgia Railroad Shops and Terminals, Georgia
21. Michael B. Brown, City Manager and Staff, for acquisition of the Central of Georgia Railroad Shops and Terminals, Georgia
22. The Chatham County Delegation to the Georgia Legislature, for the acquisition of the Central of Georgia Railroad Shops and Terminals, Georgia
23. The Chatham County Commission, for the acquisition of the Central of Georgia Railroad Shops and Terminals, Georgia
24. Governor Phil Bredesen, for the conveyance of state owned land within the Moccasin Bend Archeological District, Tennessee, to the National Park Service
25. Mr. Robert S. Gamble, of the Alabama Historical Commission, for the production of National Historic Landmark nominations for Kenworthy Hall, Government Street Presbyterian Church, and Episcopal Church of the Nativity, Alabama
26. The Palmetto Conservation Foundation for Acquisition of the Coker Experimental Farms, South Carolina
27. The Sonoco Products Company for the donation of a preservation easement of a portion of Snow's Island, South Carolina